- 370000 Investments and Royalty Earnings
- 380000 Other Financing Sources
- 390000 Internal Services

The chart classifies revenues as General (G), Program (P), or both (G/P). These classifications will be applicable in most instances, but the entity should carefully review its revenues for proper classification.

For the purposes of preparing the Government-wide Statement of Activities, GASB #34 considers revenues to be either: PROGRAM (those revenues restricted for use in a specific program) or GENERAL (those revenues not required to be reported as program revenues).

TYPE A. (ALWAYS PROGRAM REVENUES)

Revenues collected from those who purchase, use, or directly benefit from the goods or services of a program (may extend beyond the boundaries of the reporting government's citizenry).

TYPE B. (PROGRAM IF RESTRICTED – GENERAL IF NOT)

Revenues collected from parties outside the reporting government's citizenry (i.e., other governments, nongovernmental entities, or individuals).

TYPE C. (ALWAYS GENERAL, EVEN IF RESTRICTED TO A SPECIFIC PROGRAM)

Revenues collected from taxpayers of the reporting government (includes all taxpayers even if they do not benefit from a particular program).

TYPE D. (USUALLY GENERAL)

Revenues received by the reporting government from the government itself (i.e., investment earnings).
